

CIAS Staff Performance-Appraisal Policy (RIT Policy E27.0)

I.Scope

Consistent with the mission, vision, and core values of the university, Rochester Institute of Technology strives to treat all staff with respect, professionalism, and open communication. The Performance-appraisal evaluation process is critical to an employee's success and to the success of CIAS. All CIAS staff are encouraged to complete an annual Performance-appraisal and develop a plan of work for each upcoming calendar year.

II.Policy Statement

All CIAS staff will receive formal communication regarding their Performance-appraisal through an annual, documented, Performance-appraisal process. Supervisors/Administrative Chairs and staff will use current university processes and procedures, which include 1) a system and timeline for periodic Performance-appraisal assessment by using agreed upon procedures and tools, 2) individual Performance-appraisal and/or professional development plans, 3) two-way communication opportunities between the supervisor and employee, and 4) the established staff grievance procedures (E 30.0) as the appeal process.

A. Process

The Performance-appraisal process will enable both appraising supervisor and employee an opportunity to mutually discuss an annual plan of work and/or Performance-appraisal goals that will be the basis for providing an overall summary of annual Performance-appraisal in the coming year and for making decisions affecting promotion, salary/hourly rate adjustments, merit increases, and other personnel matters.

All CIAS staff (exempt and non-exempt) are encouraged to complete the Staff Performance-Appraisal Form and the Annual Plan of Work Form (Appendix A) and submit these to their supervisors. The supervisor and employee will meet to review and discuss these annual Performance-appraisal forms and this process will be completed by a date set forth by the Dean.

The final Performance-appraisal review, summary (see Appendix B) and recommendations will be sent to Human Resources (HR) and a copy will be placed in the employee's file, housed in the Dean's Office.

B. Job Description Questionnaire

The employee's current Job Description Questionnaire (JDQ) should be submitted with the Performance-appraisal document. If the employee does not have a current JDQ, it can be requested from the immediate supervisor. If the supervisor does not have a copy he/she can request one from HR. The self appraisal period is an appropriate time for staff to update or modify their JDQ. These updates should be done in consultation with the employee's supervisor/manager. If the JDQ is revised, it should be reviewed and signed by the immediate supervisor/manager and the Dean. A copy of the revised JDQ should be sent to HR who will send the revised JDQ to position control for uploading to Oracle. The employee should retain a copy (paper and/or electronic) for their records and a copy should be placed in the employee's file. A link to a generic JDQ can be found at:
