

Pre-College Portfolio Preparation Workshop

July 8-19, 2019

RIT

College of
Art and Design
School of Art

Pre-College Portfolio Preparation Workshop

---

Program Overview

The Pre-College Portfolio Preparation Workshop focuses on the process of preparing portfolios for admission to college art programs. In-depth investigations of media concept development and critical analysis are emphasized. Students will draw from life, exploring the human figure, still life, interior spaces, and nature. Expressive art assignments, group and individual critiques and visual research will help guide students through the process of portfolio selection and documentation. Participants may be rising juniors or seniors in high school.

Course Information

July 8 - July 19, 2019, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. | Pre-College Portfolio Preparation Workshop, hosted in the School of Art (Students)
July 19, 4 p.m. | Student Art Exhibition, hosted in the University Gallery, James E. Booth Hall (Students and parents)
July 19 - July 20 | College & Careers Student Program, hosted at RIT by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Housing is optional for students but not required (Students and parents)

Scholarship

Scholarship funds are available for applicants per review by the School of Art Director and Workshop Committee. Students interested in the scholarship must complete the scholarship application (enclosed) along with submitting samples of their work, a letter of recommendation from a current teacher, and financial statement from the parent/legal guardian.

Housing

RIT Housing accommodations are optional and available for interested participants. Students seeking housing must complete the attached housing application and submit with other application materials.

Cost

A cost of attendance is listed below. If students are accepted into the Pre-College Portfolio Workshop, payment for tuition and housing and meals (if applicable) are due by May 15, 2019. Checks can be made payable to Rochester Institute of Technology and sent to the address below.

Scholarship Application

Scholarship

Funds are available for applicants per review and at the discretion of the School of Art Director and Workshop Committee. Students interested in the scholarship must complete this cover page of the Scholarship Application as well as the outlined requirements below. There is no appeals process.

Scholarship Requirements

Statement of Intent

Scholarship applicants must submit a 300-500 word statement answering the following prompts:

- 1) Why do you want to attend the Pre-College Portfolio Preparation Workshop?
- 2) What do you hope to accomplish by attending this workshop?

Three Examples of Work

Students must submit three examples of original student work for scholarship consideration. These may include, but are not limited to, original drawings or sketches, digital creations, and/or craft of material pieces. Digital copies or photographs may be submitted rather than original artwork. Submissions may be sent digitally to Frances Chinnock at facpgd@rit.edu (file size must not exceed 10MB) or by mail to the address below. Please note that any original submissions are not guaranteed to be returned. (If students would like to drop off original work to be reviewed, they may coordinate drop off-and pick-up with Frances Chinnock.)
