

Great News from RIT's School of Photographic Arts and Sciences for all of RIT

We're pleased to announce a new online portal into the support, special offers and special pricing that the photo industry is making available to you, as RIT Students, Staff and Faculty.

Check out: Special Offers and Purchase Programs

or use the QR Code

(NOTE: at this point in time you may need to rotate your mobile device to the landscape mode to see and use all of the links)

We encourage you to visit and find all the great deals for the gear and equipment you will need to start your new school year. Register to enroll in the EDU programs and get the best and most current information these companies have to offer you.

Of course, we'll keep the information in the portal up to date and suggest you check back any time you need something new as product assortment and pricing changes.

And due to supply issues, some of these offers are time limited, so we recommend you shop early for the Fall semester.

Each offer has specific details about the particular programs but if you have additional questions about these offers and programs, or need to validate eligibility, please contact:
ritphotoedu@rit.edu

Sincerely,

Therese Mulligan

Director, School of Photographic Arts and Sciences
